

Power in America’s Republic
The Framers’ Plan and History’s Response

Culminating lesson Outline Template¹

Instructions:

Applying content, material, and activities from one of the topics covered during the institute, your team is to create one lesson plan outline which will be shared with all participants. If your team requires any special resources, handouts, or equipment, please notify one of the institute organizers 24 hours in advance.

In addition, your team will have 8 minutes to orally summarize the lesson with all institute participants. The number of team members participating in the presentation will be determined by individual teams.

Upon completion of the presentation, 8 minutes will be allocated for follow-up questions and inquiries from the participants at large. When this final segment is concluded your team mentor will E-mail the completed lesson outline to shoover@mobar.org.
